

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

ADMISSION.

For admission to the Freshman Class the candidates are examined in the following books: — viz.

BY THE LATIN DEPARTMENT, in the whole of Virgil, and of Cæsar,* in Cicero's Select Orations, and Adam's Latin Grammar, Gould's edition, including Prosody, and in the writing of Latin.

BY THE GREEK DEPARTMENT.

in Jacob's Greek Reader, the four Gospels of the Greek Testament, the Gloucester Greek Grammar, Cambridge edition, including Prosody, (Buttmann's and Fisk's Greek Grammars are also received,) and in writing Greek.

BY THE MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT, in Lacroix's Arithmetic, Cambridge edition, Euler's Algebra, printed also at Cambridge, and in "Elements of Geography, Ancient and Modern, by J. E. Worcester."

It is very desirable and important that the candidates should be well and correctly prepared, particularly in grammatical and elementary knowledge. If they have more time than is requisite for this purpose, instructors are desired and advised, for obvious reasons, not to anticipate the College studies, but rather to extend their studies to other authors.

The stated time of examination for the Freshman Class is on the Monday and Tuesday of commencement week beginning precisely at 6 o'clock, A. M.

No person will be examined for admission to the College at any other time than at the close or commencement of a term, except in extraordinary cases.

* In substituting Cæsar for Sallust (which was formerly required) the Faculty have been influenced by a desire to introduce Sallust into the College course, to which, from the philosophical character of its views and the peculiarity of its style, they apprehend it to be better-suited than to the preparatory course; and also by a wish that any time gained by the substitution of an easier for a more difficult author should be devoted to the acquisition of a more thorough acquaintance with syntax and prosody, and to the practice of writing Latin.

Parents and instructors are requested not to offer candidates for examination, when it is not their intention that, if admitted, they shall immediately join the class; and the Faculty will, for the future, decline entering on the examination of candidates under such circumstances.

Persons may be admitted to advanced standing, or from any other College, at any part of the College course previous to the Second Term of the Senior year. In order to such admission, the candidate must appear, on examination, to be well versed in the studies of the class which he proposes to enter. He will also be examined in the whole course, including the preparatory studies. He must also pay into the Treasury, at the rate of $15 per term, according to the standing to which he is admitted. Any Scholar, however, who has a regular dismission from another College, may be admitted to the same standing, if on examination he is found qualified, without any pecuniary consideration.

The University is open to persons who are not candidates for a degree, and who desire to study in particular departments only: Provided that such persons have a good moral character; that their previous acquisitions be such as are now demanded of Students before admission, so far as the studies proposed to be pursued shall require; and that they be subject to all the laws of the University, in regard to diligence, good conduct, and College discipline.

Graduates of any public College or University, also persons sufficiently acquainted with the Greek and Latin languages, and otherwise qualified to the satisfaction of the Faculty, are admissible as Theological Students. Application to be made to the Dean of the Faculty of Theology.

Medical Students, who would attend the course of Medical Lectures at the Massachusetts College of Medicine in Boston, enter their names with the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine on or before the third Tuesday in October.

Every person, before admission to any of the Classes or Schools of the University, must exhibit proper testimonials of a good moral character.

COMMENCEMENT is on the last Wednesday in August. The academical year is divided into three TERMS and three VACATIONS:—the first Vacation is of two weeks, from the Wednesday preceding the 25th day of December; the second is of two weeks, from the first Wednesday in April; and the third embraces the six weeks next preceding Commencement.

The Public Exhibitions are on the third Tuesday of October, and on the second Tuesday and the last Monday of the Third Term.

The Dudleian Lecture is on the second Wednesday in May.

The Juniors and Seniors likewise read Forensics once in four weeks, — half the class each fortnight.

At convenient times, the several studies are reviewed, and the Students examined.

DIVINITY SCHOOL.

Candidates for admission are expected to present themselves on the Friday after Commencement, and pass an examination in Hebrew Grammar and the first ten chapters of Deuteronomy. If unknown to the Faculty, they are to produce testimonials to their moral and serious character. Candidates, not Bachelors of Arts, will be examined in Latin and Greek Grammar, Virgil, Cicero's Select Oration, Sallust, Jacobs's Greek Reader, the first four books of Xenophon's Anabasis, the first book of Herodotus, Butler's Analogy, Locke's Essay, or some other treatise on Intellectual Philosophy, Paley's Moral Philosophy, or some other standard work on Ethics, and some approved compendium of Logic, Rhetoric, Geography, Arithmetic, Geometry, and Algebra.

Candidates for admission to an advanced standing must have been engaged in the study of Theology as long as the class into which they propose to be received; and pass an examination in the studies which that class has pursued.

Students are required to reside in or near Divinity College. They give bonds in the sum of $60 for the payment of term-bills, which, including charges for instruction, rent and care of room and furniture, and use of class-books, amount to $66 annually. Board may be had in the College Commons for $2.25 a week. Each student must possess a copy of the Old and New Testament Scriptures, in the original languages, the latter in Griesbach's edition. A copy of all other class-books is furnished on loan. Indigent students are aided from foundations and other sources. Three years, including the vacations, which amount to ten weeks in each year, complete the term of residence.

Instruction is given by the Hollis Professor in Natural Religion, Evidences of Revealed Religion, Church History, and Systematic Theology.

_____ by the Professor of Pulpit Eloquence and the Pastoral care, in Extempore Speaking, the Composition and Delivery of Sermons, and the Duties of the Pastoral Office.

_____ by the Professor of Biblical Literature, in Hebrew and other Oriental Languages, and the Criticism of the Old and New Testaments.

Students are entitled to receive instruction from the Professor of the German Language and Literature, and to be present at all public lectures of the University.

LAW SCHOOL.

The design of this Institution is to afford a complete course of legal education, for gentlemen intended for the bar in either of the United States; and elementary instruction for gentlemen not destined for the bar, but desirous of qualifying themselves, either for public life, or for commercial business. The course of instruction embraces the various branches of Public and Constitutional Law, Admiralty, Maritime, Equity, and Common Law, with occasional illustrations of Foreign Jurisprudence.

The School is under the immediate superintendence and direction of Mr. GREENLEAF, Royall Professor of Law, in the University. Mr. JUSTICE STORY, of the Supreme Court of the United States, is Dane Professor of Law in the University, and participates equally in the active labors of instruction, when not engaged in judicial duties. His course includes the principal branches of Maritime, Equity, Commercial, and Constitutional Law. The Royall Professor gives instruction in the Common Law, and in all the other juridical studies. In every week of the term there are at least six private lectures, and usually more; at which the students are examined in their respective studies, and oral explanations and illustrations are given by the Professors. Public written lectures are also occasionally delivered, upon the more important topics of jurisprudence.

The course of studies is so arranged as to be completed in two years; and, with reference to these studies, the students are divided into classes, according to their proficiency; but students are generally at liberty to join either class, in as many studies as they may choose, according to their own view of their wants and attainments.

The Academical year is divided into three terms and three vacations, corresponding to those for undergraduates.

For the ensuing Academical year, the books read with Professor STORY will be the following. Autumn Term. Bayley on Bills of Exchange; Story on the Conflict of Laws; Story on Equity, Vol. 1. Spring Term. Abbott on Shipping; Story on Bailments. Story on Equity, Vol. 2. The following books will be read with Professor GREENLEAF. Autumn Term. Blackstone's Commentaries; Chitty on Pleading. Winter Term. Kent's Commentaries; Starkie on Evidence. Spring Term. Chitty on Contracts; Stephen on Pleading; Angell and Ames on Corporations; Cruise's Digest of the Law of Real Property. Story on the Constitution will be read during the winter term, with one of the Professors. For gentlemen who remain in the Institution three years, other studies are prescribed.

A moot Court is holden every week, by one of the Professors, at which a cause, previously given out and prepared, is argued by four students, in rotation, and an opinion is delivered by the presiding Professor.

Students may generally be accommodated with rooms, in the spacious and convenient college buildings, prepared for their use, upon the same terms as undergraduates; and may, if they choose, board in Commons, as resident graduates, at $2,25 per week. They may, at their pleasure, receive instruction in any of the modern languages, at the price of $10 per annum for each language studied.

The rent of College rooms is from $10 to $17 per term. Rooms in private houses can be had at from 75 cents to $1 per week; and private board at from $2,50 to $3,50 per week.

The fees for instruction in the Law School are $100 per annum, and proportionably for a single term; for which sum the students have the use of the lecture rooms; the Law Library, containing upwards of 4000 volumes; the general Library of the University, containing about 38,000 volumes; and the privilege of attending, gratis, all the public lectures, in every Department of the University. They are also furnished with all the books studied as class-books in the School, unless they prefer their own, for the sake of making notes and references, with a view to future study and practice. Instruction is given for any period, not less than one term, which may suit the convenience of the student.

No previous examination is necessary for admission; but every student not known to the Faculty is expected to produce satisfactory testimonials of good character, and some statement of his previous studies. Bonds in the penal sum of $140 are given to the Steward for the payment of all dues to the University.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws is conferred by the University on all students who have completed the regular term of professional studies, required by the laws and rules of the State to which they belong, eighteen months thereof having been passed in the Law School of this Institution.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The books marked thus (*) compose the course which is completed in two years. The studies of gentlemen who remain longer in the School are pursued in the remaining books in the regular course, to which others are added from time to time, as far as the leisure and progress of the students may permit. The parallel course is prescribed chiefly for private reading.

MEDICAL SCHOOL.STATUTES RELATING TO THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MEDICINE.

I. — The Faculty of Medicine of this University shall consist of the President, and of the Professors and Lecturers authorized to give instruction to the medical students. This Faculty shall always have a Dean elected by themselves, for such periods as they may think proper, and may also adopt rules for their own government provided that the same do not, in any respect, contravene the laws of the University.

II. — Students of medicine, designing to attend the Medical Lectures, or any of them, shall be matriculated in this University, by entering their names with the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, to be enrolled by him; and by signing an obligation to submit to the laws of the University, and to the direction of the Faculty of Medicine.

III. — There shall be holden by the Faculty four meetings annually for the purpose of examining candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine. Two of these meetings shall be for private and two for public examinations. They shall be holden in the Massachusetts Medical College, unless otherwise specially ordered. They may be continued by adjournment, by vote of the members present; and if only one member attend at the time and place designated, he may adjourn the meeting from day to day till three members of the Faculty may attend the meeting. Three members of the Faculty must be present on every examination.

IV. — The first meeting for private examination in every year shall be holden on the day next succeeding that on which the winter courses of Medical Lectures shall terminate, at ten o'clock, A. M. The second meeting for private examinations, shall be holden on the Monday next but one preceding the day of the annual Commencement in the University, at ten o'clock, A. M. In extraordinary cases, the Faculty may hold meetings for private examinations at other periods.

V. — The meetings for public examinations shall be holden within one week after the termination of the stated annual meetings for private examinations respectively, on such days as the Faculty may appoint, if not otherwise ordered by the President. These meetings shall be open to the Governors and Inspectors of the University, to the Fellows of the Massachusetts Medical Society, and to such other respectable persons as may wish to attend them.

VI. — Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Medicine must comply with the following conditions before being admitted to a private examination, viz.

1. He shall satisfy the Faculty that he has arrived at the age of twenty-one.
2. He shall have attended two courses of the Lectures delivered at the Massachusetts Medical College by each of the Professors.

Except that if he have attended a course of Similar Lectures in any other College or University, the same may take the place of one of the above courses.

3. He shall have employed three years in his professional studies, under the direction of a regular practitioner of medicine.

4. If he has not received a University education, he shall satisfy the Faculty of Medicine in respect to his knowledge of the Latin language and experimental philosophy.

5. He shall, four weeks previous to the day on which he presents himself for examination, have given notice of his intention to the Dean of the Faculty, and at the same time shall have delivered or transmitted to the Dean a dissertation, written by himself, on some subject connected with medicine.

VII. — Every dissertation shall be submitted by the Dean to the examination of the Faculty in the mode which they shall point out.

VIII. — At the meetings for private examinations, the Faculty shall examine all those candidates who shall present themselves, after having complied with the conditions enumerated in the sixth of these statutes, upon the following branches of medical science, viz. Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Pharmacy, Midwifery, Surgery, and the Theory and Practice of Medicine. At these meetings every candidate shall be examined separately, and the decision of the Faculty in respect to each shall be made and declared to him immediately after the examination has closed. The decision in respect to each candidate shall be determined by the votes of the major part of the members of the Faculty present at the examination of the same; and this decision, if favorable to the candidate, shall be recorded by the Dean. In the decisions to be made at these meetings, regard shall be had to the dissertations, as well as to the examinations.

IX. — Those candidates, who have been approved according to the eighth of these statutes, may present themselves at the public examination next ensuing after such approbation. Each candidate so presenting himself, shall then read and defend, or be examined upon the dissertation, which he shall have previously submitted to the Faculty. At the close of each public examination, the Faculty shall decide in respect to each candidate, whether he shall be recommended as worthy of the degree for which he has applied. The decision of the Faculty, in respect to all those candidates whom they do so recommend, shall be recorded by the Dean, and shall by him be certified to the President, to be laid before the Senatus Academicus.

X. — Those candidates, who have received from the Senatus Academicus the final approbation, will be directed by the President to appear at Cambridge at such time as he may appoint, and he will then admit each of them, with the accustomed solemnities, to the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

The Lectures for Medical Students, on the various branches mentioned in the Statutes, are delivered at the Massachusetts Medical College in Boston. They commence annually on the first Wednesday in November, and continue three months. For one month after the close of the Lectures, the dissecting-room of the Medical College will be open without additional fee; and those students who are entitled to attend the practice in the Massachusetts Hospital will be permitted to continue their attendance on the same.

Students attending the Lectures of the Professor of Anatomy and Surgery are admitted to see the Surgical Practice in the Massachusetts General Hospital; and those, attending the Lectures of the Professor of the Theory and Practice of Medicine, are admitted to see the Medical Practice in the same.

The Hollis Professor of Natural Philosophy will admit Medical Students to attend the Lectures on Natural and Experimental Philosophy. The Lectures are delivered in the Philosophy Hall at Cambridge, four days in the week, between the middle of March and the middle of July annually. A Medical Student, applying for admission to these Lectures must produce, to the Professor above-mentioned, a certificate of his matriculation from the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, and another certificate from the Steward of the University, that he has paid him seven dollars for the Treasurer. Other persons may be admitted to the same Lectures, with the approbation of the President, and producing a certificate from the Steward that they have paid ten dollars.

At the private examinations, the candidates will present their certificates from the Physicians under whose care they have studied; also their tickets of admission to the several courses of Medical Lectures.

The fee for the degree of Doctor of Medicine is to be paid to the Dean. The fee is twenty-three dollars for a person who has not taken a degree of Bachelor of Arts at any College or University; eighteen dollars for one who has taken the degree of Bachelor, and thirteen for one who has taken the degree of Master of Arts. In these fees the diploma is included.

LIBRARY.

The University Library is divided into four departments, viz. Theological, Medical, Law, and Public; which last, besides books in all other departments of learning, embraces also an extensive collection of works on Theology, Medicine, and Law.

The Theological Library is in Divinity Hall. Persons entitled to its privileges, must be connected with the Divinity School. Number of books, about 700. They consist of valuable select works, principally in modern Theology, with some of the early Fathers in the original.

The Medical Library is in the Medical College in Boston. It is placed there for the convenience of students attending the medical lectures. The number of books is about ten or twelve hundred. It contains all the elementary works which are the most important and the most used by students. Besides these, it has the writings of the early Greek and Latin medical Fathers, and the works of the later medical classics; and with the latter it contains numerous valuable modern works.

The Law Library is in Dane Law College. It is designed for the officers and students of the Law Institution. Number of books, about 4,000. It contains most of the valuable works in English and American Law, and in the Civil Law, together with a variety of others by writers in France, Germany, and Spain.

The Public or College Library is in Harvard Hall. This is much larger than either of the others, and is rapidly increasing. It is for the common use of the whole University, in this respect differing from the other branches of the University Library. The total number of books is about 38,000. Of these, 2,500 are allowed for duplicates, and 1,000 for the Boylston Medical Library, which is immediately connected with it.

The total number of books in the University Library is, then, as follows:

Theological Library	about	700
Medical	do.	"	1,000
Law	do.	"	4,000
Public	do.	"	38,000
Total	about	43,700

and there are in the Society Libraries of the Students 4,500 volumes.

EXPENSES.

The necessary expenses for a year, included in the College bills, are as follows :

Instruction, Library, Lecture-Rooms, Steward's Department, Rent, and Care of Room	$90,00
Board for 42 weeks at $2,25 per week	94,50
Text-books	12,00
Special Repairs, &c.	about 3,00
	$199,50

Other expenses must vary with the economy of each student. Wood and Coal ready for use are delivered at the Student's rooms, by the University, at cost, varying with the market price, but usually at $7,50 per cord for wood, and $8,00 per ton for coal. Wood unsawed can usually be obtained from the country for about $8 per cord. The price of washing is from $3 to $5 per quarter. The rent of rooms in private houses, from $25 to $52 per annum. Board in the town from $2,50 to $3,50. The students find their own beds and furniture.

LAWS RELATIVE TO THE PATRON.

[EXTRACTED FROM THE GENERAL LAWS OF THE UNIVERSITY.]

Some gentleman of Cambridge, not of the Faculty, shall be appointed by the Corporation to be Patron* of all Students, not of this Commonwealth, who belong to places more than one hundred miles distant from Cambridge, and shall have charge of all the funds of such Students.

The Patron shall have particular instruction from the authorities of the University concerning the kind of expenses allowed to be incurred by the Students whose funds are in his hands, and he shall make no disbursements and pay no bills inconsistent with such instructions ; and whatever bills he may pay shall contain a distinct specification and charge of every article.

The Patron shall give a detailed account of the expenses incurred by each Student under his care to the Faculty, and to the Corporation, when required.

The parent or guardian of each Student shall be informed what are the necessary annual expenses included in the term-bills; and he shall also be informed by the Patron what funds for the support and use of his son or ward must be remitted to him; and the Patron is to have the whole control of the same, under the direction of the Faculty.

No Student, subject to this law, shall be permitted to continue at the University, unless he comply with it; and every such Student is to be charged in his term-bills at the rate of six dollars a year, towards a compensation to the Patron.

No such Student is allowed to contract any debt without an order from the Patron.

The bills containing college charges are to be made out at the end of each term; and must be settled within a week from the commencement of the succeeding term.
